Recognizing Diversity!

May 2011 marked Asian Pacific Heritage Month, established in 1990 by the U.S. Congress. Today, more than 16 million Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPI) make up one of the fastest growing and most diverse populations in the United States. Each of the distinct AAPI ethnic and language groups has a rich history that contributes to the fabric of our nation. Two community leaders were chosen for the Local Heroes Award including Robin J. Tarr,

Founder of the Jonathan Tarr Foundation and Tom Hom, Business/Civic Leader and former City of San Diego Deputy Mayor. Both were guests of honor at the University Club San Diego hosted by George Kaye, Union Bank ~ Sr. Vice President and Deanna Martin Mackey ~ KPBS San Diego Station Manager. A Tribute Gala will be held Feb 8, 2012, at the Balboa Theatre in San Diego.

"Thanks so much for sharing the Jonathan Tarr Foundation story with us!"

Marianne Gerdes, KBPS Producer
